ORDINARY COUNCIL MEETING

Disclaimer

The Shire of Irwin:

- advises that the purpose of an Ordinary Council Meeting is to discuss and, where possible, make resolutions about items appearing in the agenda. No person should rely on or act on the basis of any decision, advice or information provided by an Elected Member or Officer, or on the content of any discussion occurring during the course of the meeting. No person should rely on the decisions made by Council until formal written advice from the Council is received by that person.
- expressly disclaims any liability for any loss or damage whatsoever and howsoever caused arising out of reliance by any person or legal entity on any such act, omission or statement or intimation occurring during Agenda Forums, Council or Committee Meetings.
- disclaims any liability for any loss arising from any person or body relying on any statement, discussion, recommendation or decision in the audio recording. Council minutes provide the definitive record of Council's resolutions.

Nature of Council's Role in Decision Making

Advocacy	When Council advocates on its own behalf or on behalf of its community to another level of government/body/agency.
Executive	The substantial direction setting and oversight role of the Council e.g., performance of the Local Government's function under law, administration of Local Laws, adopting plans and reports, accepting tenders, directing operations, setting and amending budgets.
Legislative	Includes adopting local laws and local planning schemes.
Review	When Council reviews decisions made by Officers.
Quasi-judicial	When Council determines an application/matter that directly affects a person's rights and interests. The judicial character arises from the obligation to abide by the principles of natural justice e.g., local planning applications, building permits, other permits/licences (e.g. under the Health Act, Dog Act or local laws) and other decisions that may be appealable to the State Administrative Tribunal (SAT).

By allocating these roles, the Shire ensures that the Council's decision-making is structured and aligned with its legal responsibilities, allowing it to effectively govern, serve its community, and maintain compliance with applicable laws.

3. RESPONSE TO PREVIOUS PUBLIC QUESTIONS TAKEN ON NOTICE

Question: Mr Ian Maluish, 5 Abbot Terrace, Port Denison
What is the total budget for the ERP Project?

Response: A response was provided to Mr Maluish via email as per following:

Thank you for reaching out to us in relation to your questions not being recorded correctly in the OCM Minutes from the meeting held on 26 April 2026.

Please find following actual spends on the Project to date.

Financial Year	Actual Spend
2024/25	$143,845
2025/26	$333,667

Therefore, the total expenditure to date is $477,512 which is within the budget (being $600,250) over the same two financial years.

Both the actual and budgeted figure include a one-off implementation/deployment cost and an annual licence cost.

I can also advise that the ERP Tender and evaluation process identified the preferred respondent's tendered price being significantly lower than the next lowest tendered price (for both implementation/deployment and annual licence).

As you will be aware, the Shire is legally unable to release all tender information due to privacy and commercial in confidence legislation.

4. PUBLIC QUESTION TIME

Question: Denise Criddle, 29 Smith Street, Dongara
There is an area of land* just past the Priory Lodge which has been signposted as private property and there is no access to 'get through there' at all. Why is it signed posted as private property?

Response: The Shire President advised that this question would be taken on notice and will be available in the Minutes of this meeting as a record of public questions.

Update: Written response posted to Ms Criddle on 3 June 2026 as follows:

Response: Lot 3 St Dominics Road, Port Denison is a freehold lot that has recently been purchased. Under the Caravan Parks and Camping Grounds Regulations 1997 a person may camp for up to 5 nights in any period of 28 consecutive days on land the person owns or has a legal right to occupy.

The owners of Lot 3 St Dominics Road, Port Denison are entitled to display signage identifying their land as 'Private Property'. While access to the river is not restricted, community members must not enter or cross Lot 3 St Dominics Road and are required to access the river by alternative routes around the property.

MOVED: Cr Musulin		SECONDED: Cr Berecz
That Council by Simple Majority, receives the April 2026 Development Delegated and Authorised Authority Report, as contained in DEV 01-05/26 Attachment 1.
VOTING DETAILS:		CARRIED: 7/0

Background:

Local governments utilise levels of delegated authority to undertake day-to-day statutory functions, thereby allowing Council to focus on policy development, representation, strategic planning and community leadership, with the organisation focussing on the day-to-day operations of the Shire.

The use of delegated authority means the large volume of routine work can be effectively managed and acted on promptly, which in turn facilitates efficient service delivery to the community.

In addition, as of 1 July 2024, the determination of development applications for single houses or any development associated with a single house (excluding development associated with a heritage place), can now only be done by the CEO or authorised employees of the local government.

Officer's Comment:

Background:

Recent reforms to the local government sector in Western Australia, including the establishment of the Local Government Inspector and the strengthening of governance and accountability frameworks, have reinforced the importance of maintaining contemporary and compliant Codes of Conduct.

While the Code of Conduct for Council Members, Committee Members and Candidates is prescribed under the Local Government (Model Code of Conduct) Regulations 2021, these reforms have introduced enhanced oversight, expanded complaint mechanisms, and increased expectations regarding the behaviour and conduct of elected members.

Accordingly, it is necessary to review and update the Shire's Code of Conduct for Council Members, Committee Members and Candidates to ensure alignment with the current legislative environment, reflect the role of the Local Government Inspector, and support best practice in governance, transparency and accountability.

Officer's Comment:

Proposed changes to the current Code of Conduct for Council Members, Committee Members and Candidates reflect the new requirements as provided by legislation. The Code of Conduct for Council Members, Committee Members and Candidates 2026 includes the following differences only:

1. Addition of Clauses 11(4),(5)&(6);
2. Addition of entire Clause 14A;
3. Addition of entire Clause 14B;
4. Addition of Clause 15(3); and

Nature of Council's Role in Decision Making

Advocacy	When Council advocates on its own behalf or on behalf of its community to another level of government/body/agency.
Executive	The substantial direction setting and oversight role of the Council e.g., performance of the Local Government's function under law, administration of Local Laws, adopting plans and reports, accepting tenders, directing operations, setting and amending budgets.
Legislative	Includes adopting local laws and local planning schemes.
Review	When Council reviews decisions made by Officers.
Quasi-judicial	When Council determines an application/matter that directly affects a person's rights and interests. The judicial character arises from the obligation to abide by the principles of natural justice e.g., local planning applications, building permits, other permits/licences (e.g. under the Health Act, Dog Act or local laws) and other decisions that may be appealable to the State Administrative Tribunal (SAT).

By allocating these roles, the Shire ensures that the Council's decision-making is structured and aligned with its legal responsibilities, allowing it to effectively govern, serve its community, and maintain compliance with applicable laws.

Background:

There is provision under the Local Government Act 1995 to impose differential rates within the local government's boundaries and in considering this imposition, there are certain statutory obligations that the local government must comply with:

- Before any consideration to the Budget, the local government is required to give local public notice of its intention to impose differential rates;
- The local government must provide information of each new rate or minimum payment;
- Electors or ratepayers are invited to make submissions in respect of the proposed rate or minimum payment. This submission period must be for a minimum of 21-days; and
- Application must be made to the Minister for Local Government for approval to impose any differential general rate that is more than twice the lowest differential general rate.

The Shire of Irwin historically has used differential rates to levy a higher rate in the dollar for Mining Tenements than other Unimproved Valuation (UV) properties. This practice is common within local governments.

A draft budget workshop was held on Tuesday 9 June 2026 where Councillors reviewed the projected changes in operating revenue and expenditure, along with efficiency measures, proposed capital works and projects. The differential rates will directly influence Council's ability to fund expenditure requirements in the 2026/27 Budget.

Officer's Comment:

For Council to meet the requirements of the Act it is required to advertise the proposed differential rates within timeframes to meet the 21-day minimum advertising period before the budget is adopted.

The draft budget comprises total operating income of $4.0m (excluding rates revenue), capital grants funding of $7.2m, operating expenses of $15.0m, borrowings of $1.7m and capital works program $9.1m. After considering reserve movements and grant funding, the rates revenue required to achieve a balanced budget is $7.6m.

An overall increase of 5%, in line with the 2024–2039 Long Term Financial Plan (LTFP), has been applied to the 2025/26 actual billed rates. This increase achieves the required rate revenue for the 2026/27 Budget and enables the Shire to undertake projects that are key priorities for the community, while maintaining sustainability and financial resilience.

Inflationary pressures picked up in the second half of the financial year, further influenced by recent increases in oil prices; the annualised CPI for April 2026 was 4.2%, and the Reserve Bank of Australia's Statement on Monetary Policy, published on 6 May 2026, forecast a national CPI of 4.8% in June 2026.

The proposed rate increase has been determined with consideration of the LTFP and projected inflation.

Differential rating allows Council to maintain a degree of equity between rates levied on all unimproved value assessments within the Shire of Irwin rate base whilst providing income annually to allow for the service requirements of all property owners. The reasoning for levying the higher rate in the dollar can be found in Attachment 1 - Statement of Objects and Reasons.

It is worth noting that while both UV Rural and UV Mining are based on "Unimproved Values" provided by the Valuer General, the Valuation of Land Act 1978 prescribes different methods of calculating each one.

The unimproved valuation of land utilised for rural purposes is the capital amount that the property (not including improvements) might reasonably be expected to realise upon sale.

The unimproved valuation of land used for mining tenements is calculated on the annual rent per hectare multiplied by a factor, the amount of which depends on the number of hectares and type of lease held. They therefore have no relativity and cannot be compared.

2026/27 valuations for Unimproved Values Rural and Unimproved Values Mining, were conducted by the Valuer General (Landgate) and were provided as per below:

Gross Rental Values (GRV)

There were no revaluations for GRV.

Rural Unimproved Values (UV Rural)

The total rural unimproved valuation has increased significantly again, from 2025, by an overall 0average of approximately 16.75% to $292,826,650.

Mining Unimproved Valuations

The Mining Tenement Unimproved Roll provided by Landgate reflected a decrease of approximately 10.75% to $3,497,616.

The proposed rates of $7,574,180 includes a 5% increase on 2025/26 billed rates and interims levied. Due to the increase in UV valuations, the rates in the dollar decreased slightly with the minimum rate of $1,100 remaining unchanged from 2025/26. The draft budget is still being finalised and is subject to change due to the end of financial year process.

It should be noted that individual property values will change by more or less than the average increases reported above and therefore when rate notices are issued, they will not necessarily reflect a 5% increase in rates on the property rated.

Consultation:

If endorsed by Council for advertising, the proposed differential rates together with the objects of imposing differential rates and reasons for each rate category must be advertised for a minimum period of 21 days. This period of advertising allows ratepayers to consider the proposed rates and make any submissions to Council. The advertising process does not prevent Council from amending the rate in the dollar at budget adoption.

Statutory Environment:

Local Government Act 1995

- Section 6.32 — Rates and service charges
- Section 6.33 — Differential general rates
- Section 6.34 — Limit on revenue or income from general rates
- Section 6.35 — Minimum payments
- Section 6.36 — Local government to give notice of certain rates

Policy Implications:

In accordance with the Department of Local Government and Communities' Rating Policy – Differential Rates, Council must demonstrate that consideration has been given to the key values of Objectivity, Fairness and Equity, Consistency, Transparency and Administrative Efficiency.

Objectivity

The land on which differential general rates has been rated according to one or more of the following land characteristics:

- zoning
- land use
- vacant land

Where there has been a change to the boundaries of the district within the past five years, the land on which differential general rates apply may also be rated according to one or more of the following land characteristics:

- whether or not it is situated in a town-site
- whether or not it is situated in a particular part of the district.

The local government has proposed a differential general rate which is more than twice the lowest differential rate.

Fairness and Equity

The Council of the local government has reviewed its expenditure and considered efficiency measures as part of its budget deliberations. This is to be reflected in the council minutes when it adopts the budget strategy and endorses objects and reasons for each differential rating category and each minimum payment.

The objects of imposing differential rates and reasons for each proposed differential general rate are set out by the local government in a publicly available document.

These objects and reasons clearly explain why each differential general rate is proposed to be imposed.

The objects and reasons clearly explain why it is proposed to set the differential general rate at that figure.

If a category of ratepayer is significantly contributing to the local government's revenue through fees, charges and other payments, the local government has not used these same costs as the justification for the difference in differential general rate.

If there are fewer than thirty ratepayers who will be subject to the differential general rate, each affected ratepayer has been informed in writing by the local government of:

- the terms of this policy (through the provision of a copy of this document to the ratepayer
- the local government's objects of and reasons for proposing to impose the differential general rates
- the differential general rate that will apply to the ratepayer's property; and
- the differential general rate that applied in the previous year for comparison and was given at least 21 days to make submissions to the local government on the proposal.

The ratepayers' submissions, if any, and the local government's response to each ratepayer's submission (as recorded in the minutes of the Council meeting at which the response was adopted) have been provided to the Minister.

Consistency

The local government has rated similar properties that are used for the same purpose in the same way.

The proposed differential rates align with the rating strategy in the Corporate Business Plan and Long-Term Financial Plan, or the council of the local government has detailed its reasons for deviating from that rating strategy.

The local government has reviewed and considered rates proposed in neighbouring or similar local government districts in the rating strategy.

Transparency and administrative efficiency

The local government has:

- prepared and made publicly available a document clearly describing the object of and reason for each differential general rate;
- given public notice in a newspaper circulating generally throughout the district and exhibited to the public on a notice board at the local government's office and at every local government library in the district (refer to Rating Policy – Giving Notice)
- published the notices after 1 May in the relevant year.

The public notice published by the local government contained:

- details of each differential general rate that the local government intends to impose
- an invitation for submissions to be made by an elector or ratepayer
- a closing date for submissions which is at least twenty-one days after the day on which the notice is published

- advice on the time and place where a document containing the objects of and reasons for the differential general rates can be inspected.

The council of the local government has:

- considered each ratepayer submission (if any)
- resolved to make the application provided the Minister with the minutes and agenda papers relevant to these matters.

Financial/Resource Implications:

The Shire's principal source of income is through rates. It is an essential part of the budget process that the Council consider the level of rates that need to be raised in the context of funding the annual budget. It must also be noted that as other income, such as statutory fees and charges are fixed by external legislation, there is very little scope for the Shire to increase this revenue source to keep up with the rising costs of service provision and reduction of grant funding, therefore, these increasing costs must be borne by increases in rates.

The proposed rates are estimated to raise $7,574,180 in rate revenue, comprising $4,161,167 from GRV properties, $2,592,347 from UV Rural properties and $820,666 from UV Mining properties. These figures remain subject to final valuation changes, interim rates, submissions, any required Ministerial approval and final adoption of the 2026/27 Annual Budget.

Strategic Implications:

Our Brilliant Future – Strategic Community Plan 2021 – 2031

Strategy 4.2.1 Ensure compliance whilst embracing innovation and better practice principles

Strategy 4.3.2 Adopt and follow better practice processes

1	28 April 2026 – Council Item No. DEV 02-04/26	Draft for public comment.

Background

The Public Health Act 2016 (Act) defines public health as the health of individuals in the context of:

- a. The wider health and wellbeing of the community; and
- b. The combination of safeguards, policies and programmes designed to protect, maintain, promote and improve the health of individuals and their communities and to prevent and reduce the incidence of illness and disability.

Part 5 of the Act requires a local public health plan (Plan) to be prepared by each local government.

Introduction

The work of the Shire of Irwin (Shire) is varied, but it touches almost all areas of the community's day to day life.

There are a number of initiatives and a variety of local programs and services that the Shire is already implementing that all have a big impact on the community's health and wellbeing including:

- ❖ infrastructure and property services including local roads, footpaths, drainage and waste collection;
- ❖ recreation facilities such as parks, sports fields and the Irwin Recreation Centre;
- ❖ health services such as water and food inspections, animal control and provision of public toilets;
- ❖ community and cultural facilities such as aged care and accommodation, the Dongara Public Library, Dongara Cemetery and the Irwin District Museum; and
- ❖ planning and building services including permits, approvals, enforcement and leasing of land for health related activities.

It must be acknowledged that many factors affecting health and wellbeing fall outside the scope of local government and that the delivery of many health services are facilitated by external agencies.

The intention of this Plan is to ensure that the Shire's resources are used in the most appropriate and efficient way to address the public health and wellbeing needs of the community, rather than increase the number of services provided.

Strategic Context and Vision

The brilliant future of the Shire is articulated in the Strategic Community Plan 2021 – 2031, which has the following vision:

“Provide a safe place to live, an exciting place to visit and a progressive place to work.”

The action plan has been developed with clear linkages to the objectives of the Strategic Community Plan which are:

Social	A friendly, safe and inclusive community enjoying a high quality lifestyle
Economic	A prosperous and diverse economy
Environment	Custodianship of our natural and built environment
Leadership	Leading the community with engaged and progressive governance

The Plan reflects the priorities identified in the community engagement of the Strategic Community Plan and has a focus on achieving long-term public health outcomes through the planning process which enables the Shire to:

- ❖ assess the public health needs of the community;
- ❖ articulate the public health priorities for the community;
- ❖ allocate resources to achieve those priorities; and
- ❖ report progress.

Our Community's Health and Wellbeing

When thinking about the public health and wellbeing of our community, it is important to consider the following lifestyle factors of the Shire's population.

Population

Schedule of Submissions – Shire of Irwin Local Public Health Plan

Submission Number	Submitter	Summary of Submission	Comment
1	Member of public	The believe the Action Items listed for Delivery, Partnering or Advocating lack a basic level of prioritisation, budget cost estimates (if any) and targeted timeframes. Without this, it will be very difficult for the Shire to ensure the progress reporting of this plan can be effectively managed, monitored, and updated to ensure the plan is progressively achieved on behalf of the community.	Submission noted, no modification recommended. The action items listed in the 'Our Action Plan' are intentionally high-level strategic initiatives designed to provide flexibility in implementation. Detailed prioritisation, budget allocations, and delivery timeframes could potentially limit the Shire, agencies and stakeholders to respond to emerging needs, funding availability and changing priorities. Including excessive prescriptive detail at this stage could reduce adaptability and unnecessarily constrain implementation approaches. There are a number of initiatives and a variety of local programs and services that the Shire is already implementing through current budget allocations. The intention of the Plan is to ensure that the Shire's resources are used in the most appropriate and efficient way, rather than increase the number of services provided.
		Does Action Item 17 also include the remediation/removal of all the Asbestos Containing Materials (ACM) that currently exist within the community facilities owned or managed by the Shire in accordance with the WA Government Guidelines.	Submission noted, no modification recommended. Action 17 states: Maintain public health inspections and enforcement services to minimise harm from known risks to human health and safety. The Shire has an Asbestos Management Plan as required under the Work Health and Safety (General) Regulations 2022. This plan has been developed to assist the Shire to comply with legislative requirements in the management of asbestos containing materials (ACM), in Shire owned or controlled buildings and workplaces.

Privacy and Responsible Information
Sharing: Discussion Paper

Privacy and Responsible Information Sharing

for the Western Australian public sector

A proposal

Let's start the conversation

Messages from the Ministers

I believe that the organisation people should be able to trust the most is the Government that serves them.

Privacy is a universal human right. Western Australians should be able to say that their State Government values and respects their privacy as much as they do.

Introducing clear and strong privacy protections for individuals is more important today than ever. The pervasiveness of the internet means that once personal information is released into the public sphere, it can be very hard to control the use of that information.

Our Government has committed to pursuing this legislation because we recognise the community expects the law to enshrine its values and protect them.

I encourage the WA community to engage with this important and long-needed reform.

Hon. John Quigley MLA

Attorney General; Minister for Commerce

In an increasingly data-driven world, there are incredible opportunities for government to use data to deliver more effective, more efficient, and more seamless services.

Better use of data has the power to improve many things we do, whether it is something as simple as renewing a licence, as complex as improving research into children's health, or as important as reducing cases of family domestic violence.

With this opportunity comes significant responsibility, and the use of data by Government needs a solid foundation of data protection and privacy measures to ensure both public good and public confidence.

I welcome your feedback on how a responsible approach to privacy and information sharing can deliver a smarter, more efficient WA.

Hon. Dave Kelly MLA

Minister for Water; Fisheries; Forestry;
Innovation and ICT; Science

Why do we need to act?

Did you know that Western Australia is one of only two jurisdictions in Australia without overarching privacy legislation?

While there is some legislation that regulates the use of confidential information and offers some privacy protections to individuals in particular circumstances, these operate in an ad hoc and sometimes inconsistent way.

Given the vast amount of information and data the WA Government holds, it's critical that this be addressed as soon as practical.

You have a right to know that your privacy will be protected. You need to be assured that any information held by the WA public sector about you, your family, or your business, will be handled responsibly and securely.

If you feel your privacy has been breached, there should be somewhere in Government that has the right skills and tools to make sure that your complaint is resolved. Government should be diligent and transparent in managing your privacy, and held to account when things go wrong.

Cutting the red tape that unnecessarily locks information up is key to making sure you have access to the best possible Government services. We recognise you should only have to tell us once when you move house, or a loved one passes away. And if you want to get those services online, you should be able to.

In our increasingly complex world, this Government recognises it must do things differently if it is to address our most wicked problems. We can't improve Aboriginal wellbeing, homelessness or youth suicide by doing what we've always done.

Sharing information between agencies is fundamental to unlocking new insights and making sure Government can work as one to address society's most pressing needs.

We consider that State privacy legislation is essential to support and enable current and future health and social research in WA, and to improve outcomes for Western Australian citizens.

Malcolm McCusker AO QC

Chair of the Governing Board, Western Australian Health Translation Network

Previous consultation on data sharing

There have already been several recent reviews and inquiries that have considered, reported and made recommendations related to information sharing within government. The submissions made to the 2016 Data Linkage Review and relevant submissions made to the 2017 Service Priority Review and the current Commonwealth Government consultation on a proposed Data Sharing and Release Bill have been reviewed.

There is broad consensus that responsibly unlocking the value of information held by government has the potential to improve decision making and the way government operates, ultimately resulting in better services and outcomes for individuals, the community and businesses.

General support for:

Information being shared between government agencies to support service delivery

Sharing of data for research when in the public's interest

A principles approach to sharing data such as the 'Five-Safes' model

Transparency around how data is collected, used, stored and managed by government

Highlighted the need to have:

Rigorous privacy protections

Clear guidelines to inform how information is shared

Mechanisms to share information with authorised third parties

Appropriate repercussions/redress for data misuse

Appropriate systems and capabilities across the Government to unlock the true benefits of data sharing

Concerned about:

Enabling third parties to use information which is not in the public's interest

Sharing information to enforce compliance

Undermining existing provisions, such as national security

How can we better protect privacy?

At first glance, privacy and data sharing might appear to have competing aims – one is restricting the flow of information and the other is facilitating it.

But the WA Government sees these two important considerations as complementary. We should not be considering expanding the sharing of data without first making sure we have the right privacy framework to safeguard citizens' personal information.

The WA Government is proposing to introduce a whole-of-government framework to govern the way the public sector manages the information it holds.

This will create uniform rules across the WA Public Sector that will require agencies to consider your privacy whenever they collect, use or share your information.

At an agency level, the WA public sector has processes to protect personal and sensitive information. There are also avenues to penalise public servants who have misused information. However, the laws that currently regulate privacy and the disclosure of personal information are complex and inconsistent across Government, and there is no specific body to oversee privacy in the WA public sector.

The Government has looked at privacy protections elsewhere in Australia and overseas, and sees many benefits in learning from their experience in these areas and aligning proposed privacy and data sharing legislation with other jurisdictions where practical and appropriate.

I welcome the development of WA data sharing legislation to provide a strong framework to ensure that data is used for public good whilst protecting individual privacy.

As a child health researcher, the use of data to answer important questions about issues that affect children and their families is integral for the prevention and treatment of illness and adverse outcomes. Data collected by government agencies is an important resource which needs to be used by government and researchers to ensure policy, programs and interventions are achieving the best outcomes for Western Australians.

Patron, Telethon Kids Institute

Overarching framework

Proposed model:

- A strong framework to protect privacy of personal information
- Whole-of-government standards for the responsible collection, management and use of personal information
- A comprehensive and consistent framework to govern the responsible sharing of information within Government and with authorised third parties
- Provisions to enable the use of information to deliver better services and outcomes
- Mechanisms to ensure accountability and public confidence through independent oversight and clear pathways for resolving complaints

Approach:

- Privacy elements will relate to protecting personal information within the WA public sector, while other provisions will relate to sharing a range of information.
- Will apply to the WA public sector and include sharing provisions for authorised third parties such as universities, other Governments and non-government organisations that are delivering services on behalf of government.

The framework will facilitate information sharing for:

Evidence-based decision making

Inform the design, implementation and evaluation of policy, programs and services.

Service delivery

Enable a citizen-centred approach to effective service delivery and efficiency in government operations.

Research and Development

Support broader independent research insights and outcomes.

The legislation will be based on a foundation of privacy principles, transparency and independent oversight.

- Privacy principles which place obligations on the public sector, and give protections to those whose information is held by the WA public sector.
- An independent body which is able to receive and resolve privacy complaints from the public
- Transparency around the appropriate purposes and circumstances for sharing information

For more information about the Australian Privacy Principles, which are a guiding framework for WA's proposed privacy model, please see the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner's website at:

<https://www.oaic.gov.au/privacy-law/privacy-act/>

New privacy protections for the personal information held by the WA public sector, supported by clear rules for responsible information sharing, will help protect people's privacy while unlocking the value of data to deliver better services and outcomes for the community.

Western Australia remains the only Australian jurisdiction without privacy and/or data sharing legislation.

The absence of comprehensive privacy and information sharing frameworks in Western Australia means personal information is protected by a patchwork of rules, and public sector agencies must operate within a complex, inefficient system in order to lawfully and responsibly manage and share the information they hold.

This has resulted in:

- fragmented and unclear protections for those whose information is held by the WA public sector, with no specific avenue by which privacy complaints can be resolved;
- reduced public trust and confidence in how data is stored, used and shared;
- an inconsistent and generally risk adverse approach to information sharing between agencies; and
- reduced collaboration and evidence based decision making.

A range of reviews, inquiries and inquests, as well as broader stakeholder feedback, highlight the pressing need for action.

Delivering better outcomes for Western Australia

Stronger protections for privacy

- Ensures non-negotiable standards for the collection, management, use and disclosure of personal information.
- Gives clarity for the circumstances in which personal information can or can not be shared.

Improved accountability and transparency

- Provides for independent oversight and a mechanism where public complaints can be addressed.
- Ensures accountability within the WA public sector for the handling of personal information.
- New governance and reporting arrangements for data sharing to improve accountability and transparency.

Better services and outcomes for the community

Enabling the WA public sector to responsibly share information will:

- Make it easier and more convenient to interact with government. This also means that services can be better tailored or designed to meet your needs.
- Enable better decisions and planning for the future about the services that it provides, like where to prioritise transport, health and education investments.
- Enable new insights into how best to tackle complex economic, environmental and social issues creating a safer and fairer society for all.

What's wrong with the status quo?

The absence of overarching privacy legislation in WA has contributed to difficulties in sharing information with other States and the Australian Government.

This means that we sometimes miss opportunities that would be beneficial to Western Australians. Our health researchers are not able to get access to all the information they need, and sometimes WA government agencies miss out on opportunities to properly find out whether taxpayer dollars are delivering the best possible outcomes.

WA Government is a large and complex organisation working across the biggest State in Australia. The lack of information sharing means that sometimes we don't get the best outcomes, despite the hard work of frontline services.

It is in the community's interests that the WA Government breaks down these barriers and encourages responsible information sharing that will result in better outcomes in key areas such as health, safety, education and planning.

Greater availability and use of public sector data has the potential to bring significant benefits to the community, such as improved government policy and service delivery, more transparency, and improved accountability.¹

For example, in 2019 the Auditor General reported on improving Aboriginal Children's Ear Health. Otitis Media is a treatable ear disease that can cause permanent hearing damage. The Auditor General noted that

“the many entities, organisations and medical practices involved in identifying, diagnosing and treating Otitis Media in Aboriginal children across WA collect their own specific data. However due to privacy concerns, they do not share patient information, even at a de-identified and aggregated level... Because the data is not shared, no one knows how bad the situation is for Aboriginal children at a whole of state level at any specific point in time, and there is no baseline to measure performance.”²

A whole-of-government framework to govern the way the public sector manages the information it holds will provide greater protection because it will ensure consistent and clear rules and responsibilities when information including personal information is collected, stored, managed and used.

What are the benefits for me?

We live in a society that is constantly changing. We expect our services to be more accessible and able to meet our needs quickly and efficiently.

How many times have you been asked for the same information from different government agencies?

Wouldn't it make life easier if:

- Instead of having to have a range of different licences, such as your Driver's Licence, a Fishing Licence, a Plumbers Licence, and so on, you could just have one that gets updated automatically when you tell Government you've changed address?
- When a loved one passes away, you only need to tell WA Government once, instead of having to tell many different agencies?
- You got married and changed your name, and you only needed to tell the WA Government once?
- You could get all your WA Government services online through a single portal, instead of having to go into different government department offices?

ServiceWA, a WA Government initiative aimed at making life easier for West Australians, is being trialled in Bunbury. It will enable Western Australians access to 85 everyday services — either face-to-face or via an online portal — from five WA government agencies.

This initiative is just the beginning. Introducing this legislation could address any legal barriers to realising the full potential of this service to reduce unnecessary interactions with Government and enable better services for you.

This is particularly important when you are dealing with multiple agencies in times of stress, such as supporting a loved one with mental illness, seeking help with disability services, or navigating the police and justice systems.

Making use of the rich, but currently fragmented information that Government holds would allow us to identify issues early and prevent issues that might affect you or your family.

In South Australia, the Energy4Life initiative matches South Australian suburbs undergoing long power outages with residents with electricity-dependent medical issues. For example, a person on a dialysis machine could be at risk without access to power for such a long period. Energy4Life prompts SA Health to login for more information on an outage and provide Red Cross with details of people at risk.³

Sharing data is important to businesses, too. The Victorian Government "My Victoria" portal is a free, easy to use business insights tool that aims to help small business identify gaps in the market and grow their businesses.⁴ The NSW Government Easy to Do Business initiative helps people get their businesses off the ground. It has condensed 48 forms and 75 regulations into one single digital form and allows access to 13 government agencies through a single digital solution.⁵

How does sharing information help society?

The biggest problems facing our community are complex and do not have a simple solution — for example, improving the health and wellbeing of children, or reducing illicit drug use.

When Government agencies work together to tackle complex issues, rather than in silos, everyone benefits.

The biggest impact that can be made by Government is often in the areas where the problems are the most difficult. When information is shared between public sector agencies, it can help deliver practical insights into how we can better deal with our seemingly intractable issues. It can also support a more effective public service by identifying those who would benefit most from services and support.

In South Australia, the Vulnerable Children Project facilitates information sharing between agencies to provide frontline workers and strategic decision makers with a fuller picture of South Australia's vulnerable children and their families. This provides a near real-time dashboard to the Department for Child Protection's Child Abuse Report Line to inform decision making at strategic and operational levels. The dashboard features integrated, securely shared data from across government.

Here in WA, the Index of Biodiversity Surveys for Assessment has centralised biodiversity data collected each year. This information helps build a better picture of WA's flora and fauna, supports environmental assessments and improves strategic planning and management.

Data linkage has also helped the Government to develop strategies that ensures better care for our most vulnerable citizens. This has significant socio-economic benefits, identifying children at risk and allowing earlier intervention.

The WA Data Linkage System, which confidentially and securely links data while protecting individual privacy, has been used in more than 800 projects in universities, government and hospital settings and often involved collaboration with diverse research groups. The use of these integrated data sets has helped inform policy, innovation and research and, importantly, there has not been a single breach of private information since its inception in 1995.

By sharing information and integrating data sets, researchers and policy makers gain new insights into difficult issues and are better able to develop solutions.

Through better access to data and the capacity to engage in data linkage, the State Government can open up the possibility for services to better measure outcomes and demonstrate return on investment, and to better understand risk factors and target at risk cohorts to enable earlier intervention strategies.⁷

What sort of information can be shared?

The WA Government collects and holds a lot of information. Some is not sensitive, such as information about the environment we live in. Other information is highly sensitive, such as details about an individual's health and financial circumstances.

It is proposed that sensitive information held by the WA public sector be kept confidential unless there are overriding and very important reasons to disclose or share that information.

Sometimes it is necessary to share personal information to ensure community safety. As an example, the WA Government introduced 'No Jab, No Play' laws to allow the Department of Health to protect under-vaccinated children at school during disease outbreaks. In order to achieve this, schools must be able to share the information they hold about children's vaccinations with the Department of Health.

This means the Department of Health can identify children whose vaccines are not up-to-date, so they can be made to stay safely at home if there is a disease outbreak at their school.

However, in other examples, such as in health researchers exploring links between mental health and the justice system, or Government making informed decisions about where to build new schools, only aggregated, de-identified data is necessary.

In order to provide clarity and to reassure the community, the WA Government is considering which activities it should permit within the proposed legislation, and provide guidance to agencies on approved purposes for sharing information. These might include, for example, activities to ensure better delivery of government services, such as reducing requests for the same information; to protect an individual; or to reduce a threat to health or safety.

There will be scope to exclude particularly sensitive kinds of information from the legislation. These might include, for example, information that relates to criminal investigations or proceedings, or is subject to active police operations.

Data is a rapidly emerging resource that has been described as the new gold. Western Australia's capacity to harness its data and information assets is key to the State's capacity to prosper in the digital era and solve complex societal challenges. This includes building on Western Australia's exceptional data linkage capabilities which have been utilised for decades to solve numerous health challenges. I am pleased to support the development of Western Australian legislation that will facilitate sharing of data whilst protecting privacy.

The Western Australia Aboriginal Health Ethics Committee (AHEC) supports the government's intention to introduce privacy and responsible information sharing legislation and engage with Aboriginal people to look at opportunities to address related issues of concern to them. The Committee encourages Aboriginal people and organisations to engage with this decision making process to ensure the collection, use, disclosure and sharing of data within Government, with authorised third parties and with Aboriginal people themselves, benefits Aboriginal people and their communities.

The Committee was established in 1996 and ensures research decision making processes respect Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples and communities, to recognise and understand their rights and responsibilities in being involved in all aspects of research and better understanding the steps involved in making research ethical.

Who would get access to public sector information?

The Government will need to provide clear rules for what information can and can't be shared, who with, and for what purposes.

With changes in technology people are more aware of and concerned about who has access to their data and what it is used for. It proposes only to share information within Government and with authorised third parties so better decisions can be made about the types of services provided and how best to implement them. The Government wants to better tailor services to meet the needs of individuals, families and communities and to gain better insights into the solutions needed to fix complex social problems.

Where appropriate and beneficial, information would be shared within and between public sector agencies, or with authorised third parties. These could include other Australian governments, or non-government organisations providing services to the community on behalf of the Government.

The WA Government also has important relationships with external stakeholders, such as research groups. For example, sharing data could help support better research into child health.

Before a public sector agency could share information, it would be required to ensure the third party is compliant with WA's standards of data sharing, can ensure confidentiality and can deliver on the purposes for which the information is being shared.

Government will be transparent about how information sharing decisions are made, and who information is shared with.

How will the Government ensure that information is shared safely?

The proposed legislation will require public sector agencies to consider privacy in everything they do when collecting or using personal information. Agencies will be legally obliged to ensure the privacy of citizens is a primary consideration.

A structured, risk-based decision-making process will be provided to enable agencies to assess whether information should be shared or not.

It is proposed that this process be built upon the data sharing principles that underpin the Australian Government's proposed Data Sharing and Release legislation.

The set of five principle-based criteria — Safe

Projects, Safe People, Safe Data, Safe Settings, and Safe Outputs — must be applied and satisfied before an agency can share information with another party.

In making a decision whether to share personal or sensitive information, government organisations will need to be supported to understand potential risks and make informed decisions about whether or not to share information.

The WA Government is also investing heavily in improving public sector cyber security, and will work to build the public sector's ability to ensure the safety of information.

Five principle-based criteria ⁸

In my role as a community health nurse, information sharing is essential to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children together with my own safety in the workplace. More timely and joined up information sharing would assist me to better assess and manage a family's risk with the aim of keeping children, families and community nursing teams safe and well.

As a community nurse this should include information about the child, situations involving family violence, substance misuse or any circumstance which pose a risk to families and/or staff. Whilst we have clear policy which support the safety of nursing teams, children and their families, improved information sharing will be of great benefit in ensuring we all work together to support families and their care providers.

Who will ensure accountability and transparency?

A key consideration of the consultation process will be determining the appropriate standards for privacy.

The Government is considering the appointment of a WA Privacy Commissioner to support accountability for the public sector in meeting these standards.

It is envisaged a commissioner could facilitate transparency and ensure compliance, be responsible for promoting privacy within the public sector and ensure privacy principles are upheld.

WA Government is also considering that a Chief Data Officer could be appointed to support the WA public sector in using, sharing, linking and analysing information. The Chief Data Officer would establish and monitor standards for information sharing and advocate for best practice in the use and management of data in the public sector.

What happens if my privacy is breached?

At the moment, if you believe a public sector agency has breached your privacy, there is no specific pathway for complaints to be made and resolved.

It is proposed that a Privacy Commissioner could be responsible for receiving complaints and ensuring they are resolved appropriately. The handling of privacy breaches in other jurisdictions will be considered in considering the commissioner's responsibilities.

How do I share my feedback?

The Government recognises that privacy is of the utmost important to Western Australians and acknowledges the need to consult thoroughly to ensure any legislation protects the integrity of information while enabling it to be shared in an efficient and safe manner where it is deemed advantageous.

We encourage you to take the time to read the discussion paper in full and share your feedback, either in writing or via our website:

Information Privacy Principles

The Privacy and Responsible Information Sharing Act 2024 (WA) (PRIS Act), outlines 11 Information Privacy Principles (IPPs) in Schedule 1 to the PRIS Act. These are reproduced in this document.

The official version is found in the Schedule. The IPPs cover collection, use, disclosure, quality, security, openness and transparency, access and correction, unique identifiers, anonymity, disclosures outside Australia and automated decision-making in the context of personal information. They also regulate de-identified information in relation to security and disclosures outside of Australia.

The IPPs have not yet commenced. The Government has stated that they will commence on 1 July 2026.

Principle 1: Collection

1.1 An IPP entity must not collect personal information (other than sensitive personal information) unless the information is necessary for 1 or more of the IPP entity's functions or activities.

1.2 An IPP entity must not collect sensitive personal information that relates to an individual unless the information is necessary for 1 or more of the IPP entity's functions or activities and —

- (a) the individual consents to the collection of the information; or
- (b) the collection of the information is required or authorised by or under law; or
- (c) both of the following apply —
 - (i) the collection of the information is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual, or a threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual due to family violence;
 - (ii) the individual to whom the information relates is incapable under section 154(4) of giving consent to the collection;

or

- (d) the collection of the information is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal or equitable claim; or
- (e) the collection of the information is permitted under subclause 1.3.

1.3 For the purposes of subclause 1.2(e), collecting sensitive personal information is permitted if —

- (a) the collection —
 - (i) is necessary for research, or the compilation or analysis of statistics, relevant to government funded-funded targeted welfare or educational services; or
 - (ii) is of information relating to an individual's racial or ethnic origin and is collected for the purpose of providing government funded-funded targeted welfare or educational services;

and

- (b) there is no reasonably practicable alternative to collecting the information for that purpose; and
- (c) it is impracticable for the IPP entity to seek the individual's consent to the collection.

1.4 An IPP entity must not collect personal information that relates to an individual unless the collection is fair and reasonable in the circumstances, taking into account the following matters —

- (a) whether the individual would reasonably expect the information to be collected in the circumstances;
- (b) the kind of personal information collected, including whether any of that information is sensitive personal information;
- (c) the amount of personal information collected;
- (d) whether the collection of the information is necessary for 1 or more of the IPP entity's functions or activities;
- (e) whether there is a risk of loss, harm or other detriment to any individual as a result of the collection of the information;
- (f) whether the collection of the information for 1 or more of the IPP entity's functions or activities is, on balance, in the public interest;

- (g) in the case of personal information that relates to a child — whether the collection of the information is in the best interests of the child;
 - (h) the objects of this Act.
- 1.5 Subclause 1.4 does not apply to the collection of personal information if —
- (a) the collection is required or authorised by or under law; or
 - (b) the IPP entity reasonably believes that the collection is necessary to prevent or lessen —
 - (i) a serious threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual; or
 - (ii) a threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual due to family violence;
 - or
 - (c) the collection is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal or equitable claim.
- 1.6 An IPP entity must not collect personal information in an unreasonably intrusive way.
- 1.7 Before collecting personal information, an IPP entity must make a written record of the purposes for which the information will be collected and used or disclosed.
- 1.8 An IPP entity must collect personal information that relates to an individual only from the individual unless —
- (a) the individual consents to the collection of the information from someone other than the individual; or
 - (b) the collection of the information is required or authorised by or under law; or
 - (c) it is unreasonable or impracticable to do so.
- 1.9 At or before the time (or, if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after) an IPP entity collects personal information that relates to an individual from the individual, it must take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the individual is given, or made aware of, the following information —
- (a) the identity of the IPP entity and how to contact it;
 - (b) how the individual may access the information (if applicable);
 - (c) the purposes for which the information is collected and will be used or disclosed;
 - (d) whether the IPP entity usually discloses information of that kind and, if so, the persons or bodies or kinds of persons or bodies to which the information is usually disclosed;
 - (e) any law that requires the particular information to be collected;
 - (f) the main consequences (if any) for the individual if all or part of the information is not provided.
- 1.10 If an IPP entity collects personal information that relates to an individual from someone other than the individual, the IPP entity must take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances —
- (a) to satisfy itself that the information was not originally collected from the individual in contravention of this clause; and
 - (b) to ensure that the individual is given, or made aware of, the information referred to in subclause 1.9(a) to (f), except to the extent that giving or making the individual aware of that information would pose —
 - (i) a serious threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual; or

- (ii) a threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual due to family violence.

- 1.11 If an IPP entity collects personal information that relates to an individual from someone other than the individual in connection with a complaint made about the individual, the IPP entity is not required to comply with subclause 1.10 in relation to the collection of the information unless the IPP entity contacts the individual about the complaint.
- 1.12 An IPP entity must ensure that the information that an individual is given, or made aware of, under subclause 1.9 or 1.10(b) is up-to-date, clear, concise and expressed in plain language.

Principle 2: Use and disclosure

2.1 If an IPP entity holds personal information that relates to an individual that was collected to be used or disclosed for a particular purpose (the primary purpose), the IPP entity must not use or disclose the information for another purpose (the secondary purpose) unless —

- (a) the individual would reasonably expect the IPP entity to use or disclose the information for the secondary purpose and the secondary purpose is —
 - (i) if the information is not sensitive personal information — related to the primary purpose; or
 - (ii) if the information is sensitive personal information — directly related to the primary purpose;or
- (b) the individual consents to the use or disclosure; or
- (c) all of the following apply —
 - (i) the use or disclosure is necessary for research, or the compilation or analysis of statistics, in the public interest;
 - (ii) the research or statistics are not to be published in a form that identifies any particular individual;
 - (iii) it is impracticable for the IPP entity to seek the individual's consent before the use or disclosure or, in the case of disclosure, the IPP entity reasonably believes that the recipient of the information will not further disclose the information;or
- (d) the IPP entity reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen —
 - (i) a serious threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual; or
 - (ii) a serious threat to public health, public safety or public welfare; or
 - (iii) a threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual due to family violence;or
- (e) the IPP entity has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being, or may be, engaged in and uses or discloses the information as a necessary part of its investigation of the matter or in reporting the matter to relevant persons or authorities; or
- (f) the use or disclosure is required or authorised by or under law; or
- (g) the IPP entity reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary for —

- (i) a law enforcement function to be performed by a law enforcement agency; or
- (ii) proceedings before a court or tribunal.

2.2 An IPP entity must not use or disclose personal information unless the use or disclosure is fair and reasonable in the circumstances, taking into account the following matters —

- (a) whether the individual would reasonably expect the information to be used or disclosed in the circumstances;
- (b) the kind of personal information used or disclosed, including whether any of that information is sensitive personal information;
- (c) the amount of personal information used or disclosed;
- (d) whether the use or disclosure is necessary for 1 or more of the IPP entity's functions Or activities;
- (e) whether there is a risk of loss, harm or other detriment to any individual as a result of the use or disclosure of the information;
- (f) whether the disclosure or use of the information for 1 or more of the IPP entity's functions or activities is, on balance, in the public interest;
- (g) in the case of personal information that relates to a child — whether the use or disclosure of the information is in the best interests of the child;
- (h) the objects of this Act.

2.3 Subclause 2.2 does not apply to the use or disclosure of personal information if —

- (a) the use or disclosure is required or authorised by or under law; or
- (b) the IPP entity reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen —
 - (i) a serious threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual; or
 - (ii) a serious threat to public health, public safety or public welfare; or
 - (iii) a threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual due to family violence; or
- (c) the IPP entity has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being, or may be, engaged in and uses or discloses the information as a necessary part of its investigation of the matter or in reporting the matter to relevant persons or authorities; or
- (d) the IPP entity reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary for —
 - (i) a law enforcement function to be performed by a law enforcement agency; or
 - (ii) proceedings before a court or tribunal.

2.4 Before using or disclosing personal information for a secondary purpose, the IPP entity must make a written record of the secondary purpose.

2.5 If an IPP entity uses or discloses personal information in a manner permitted by subclause 2.1(g) or 2.3(d), the IPP entity must make a written record of the use or disclosure.

2.6 For the purposes of this clause, a disclosure of information that is covered by an express exception from a secrecy provision in a written law is taken to be authorised by law.

Principle 3: Information quality

3. An IPP entity must take such steps (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that personal information it collects, uses or discloses is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

Principle 4: Information security

- 4.1 An IPP entity must take reasonable steps to protect the personal information it holds from misuse and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
- 4.2 An IPP entity must take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify personal information if it is no longer needed for any purpose for which it may be used or disclosed under this Schedule, unless the IPP entity is expressly required or authorised to retain the information by or under another law.

Principle 5: Openness and transparency

- 5.1 An IPP entity must develop a document setting out policies on its handling of personal information and must make the document available to anyone who requests it.
- 5.2 A document referred to in subclause 5.1 must be up-to-date, clear, concise and expressed in plain language.
- 5.3 On request by a person, an IPP entity must take reasonable steps to let the person know, generally —
- (a) the kinds of personal information that the IPP entity collects and holds; and
 - (b) how the IPP entity handles personal information; and
 - (c) the purposes for which the IPP entity handles personal information; and
 - (d) whether any personal information held by the IPP entity is used for an automated decision-making process.

Principle 6: Access and correction

- 6.1 If an IPP entity holds personal information that relates to an individual, it must provide the individual with access to the information on a request made by the individual in accordance with section 40, except to the extent that —
- (a) providing access would endanger the life or physical safety of any person; or
 - (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that —
 - (i) the person requesting access is a perpetrator, or alleged perpetrator of family violence; and
 - (ii) denying access is necessary to prevent or lessen a threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of any individual due to family violence;
- or
- (c) providing access would enable the existence, non-existence or identity of any confidential source of information in relation to the enforcement or administration of the law to be discovered; or
 - (d) providing access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of other individuals; or
 - (e) the request for access is frivolous or vexatious; or

- (f) the information relates to existing legal proceedings between the IPP entity and the individual, and the information would not be accessible by the process of discovery or subpoena in those proceedings; or
 - (g) providing access would reveal the intentions of the IPP entity in relation to negotiations with the individual in such a way as to prejudice those negotiations; or
 - (h) providing access would be unlawful; or
 - (i) denying access is required or authorised by or under law; or
 - (j) providing access would be likely to prejudice an investigation of possible unlawful activity; or
 - (k) providing access would be likely to prejudice any of the law enforcement functions of a law enforcement agency; or
 - (l) providing access would be likely to reveal evaluative information generated within the IPP entity about a commercially sensitive decision-making process.
- 6.2 If the IPP entity denies access to the personal information because of subclause 6.1(l), the IPP entity may include in the reasons for the denial of access referred to in subclause 6.7 an explanation for the commercially sensitive decision.
- 6.3 If an IPP entity is not required to provide an individual with access to information because of any of subclause 6.1(a) to (l), the IPP entity must, if reasonable, consider whether the use of mutually agreed intermediaries would allow sufficient access to meet the needs of both parties.
- 6.4 If a fee for making a request for access to personal information applies under regulations made for the purposes of section 40(2)(e), the IPP entity may refuse access to the personal information until the fee is paid.
- 6.5 If an individual makes a request to an IPP entity in accordance with section 41 for the correction of personal information that relates to the individual, and the individual establishes that the information is not accurate, complete and up-to-date, the IPP entity must take reasonable steps to correct the information so that it is accurate, complete and up-to-date.
- 6.6 If the individual and the IPP entity disagree about whether the information is accurate, complete and up-to-date, and the individual requests the IPP entity to associate with the information a statement claiming that the information is not accurate, complete or up-to-date, the IPP entity must take reasonable steps to do so.
- 6.7 An IPP entity must provide reasons for a denial of access to, or a refusal of a request for the correction of, personal information.
- 6.8 If an individual requests access to, or the correction of, personal information held by an IPP entity, the IPP entity must, as soon as practicable, but no later than 45 days after the day on which the request is made —
- (a) provide access to the information or reasons for the denial of access; or
 - (b) correct the information or provide reasons for the refusal of the request for the correction of the information; or
 - (c) provide reasons for the delay in responding to the request.

Principle 7: Unique identifiers

- 7.1 An IPP entity must not assign unique identifiers to individuals unless the assignment of unique identifiers is necessary to enable the IPP entity to perform any of its functions or activities efficiently.

- 7.2 An IPP entity must not adopt as its own unique identifier of an individual a unique identifier of the individual that has been assigned by another IPP entity unless —
- (a) the adoption of the unique identifier is necessary to enable the IPP entity to perform any of its functions efficiently; or
 - (b) the individual consents to the use of the unique identifier; or
 - (c) the IPP entity is an outsourcing entity under a State services contract and is adopting the unique identifier assigned by a contracted service provider in the provision of services under the contract; or
 - (d) the IPP entity is a contracted service provider under a State services contract and is adopting the unique identifier assigned by the relevant outsourcing entity.
- 7.3 An IPP entity must not use or disclose a unique identifier assigned to an individual by another IPP entity unless —
- (a) the use or disclosure is necessary for the IPP entity to fulfil its obligations to the other IPP entity; or
 - (b) circumstances referred to in IPP 2.1(c), (e), (f) or (g) apply to the use or disclosure; or
 - (c) the individual consents to the use or disclosure.
- 7.4 An IPP entity must not require an individual to provide a unique identifier in order to obtain a service unless —
- (a) the provision of the identifier is required or authorised by or under law; or
 - (b) the provision is in connection with the purpose for which the identifier was assigned or a directly related purpose.

Principle 8: Anonymity

- 8.1 Individuals must have the option of not identifying themselves when dealing with an IPP entity.
- 8.2 Subclause 8.1 does not apply to an IPP entity in relation to a matter if —
- (a) the IPP entity is required or authorised by or under law to deal with individuals who have identified themselves in relation to that matter; or
 - (b) it is impracticable for the IPP entity to deal with individuals who have not identified themselves in relation to that matter.

Principle 9: Disclosures outside Australia

- 9.1 An IPP entity must not disclose personal information that relates to an individual to a person (other than the individual) outside Australia unless —
- (a) the IPP entity reasonably believes that the person to whom the information is disclosed is subject to a law, binding administrative scheme, or contract, that requires the person to comply with principles for handling the information that are substantially similar to the information privacy principles; or
 - (b) the individual consents to the disclosure; or
 - (c) the disclosure is required or authorised by or under law; or
 - (d) the disclosure is necessary for the performance of a contract between the individual and the IPP entity or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken in response to the individual's request; or

- (e) the disclosure is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract that is concluded in the interest of the individual between the IPP entity and a third party; or
- (f) all of the following apply —
 - (i) the disclosure is for the benefit of the individual;
 - (ii) it is impracticable to obtain the consent of the individual to the disclosure;
 - (iii) if it were practicable to obtain that consent, the individual would be likely to give it;
- or
- (g) the IPP entity has taken reasonable steps to ensure that the information will not be held, used or disclosed by the recipient inconsistently with the information privacy principles.

9.2 An IPP entity must not disclose de-identified information that relates to an individual to a person (other than the individual) outside Australia unless the IPP entity takes reasonable steps to ensure that the person to whom the de-identified information is disclosed —

- (a) protects the de-identified information from misuse and loss and from unauthorised re-identification, access, modification or disclosure; and
- (b) does not —
 - (i) re-identify the de-identified information (except in circumstances referred to in IPP 11.2(c) or (d)); or
 - (ii) further disclose the information in a manner that is likely to undermine the effectiveness of the de-identification of the information.

Principle 10: Automated decision-making

10.1 An IPP entity that employs an automated decision-making process involving the use of personal information in making significant decisions about individuals must —

- (a) conduct an assessment of the impact of the automated decision-making process on those individuals, having regard to —
 - (i) the elimination or minimisation of harm, bias and discrimination; and
 - (ii) whether there is a process by which individuals about whom decisions are made can request human intervention; and
 - (iii) whether the handling of personal information in the process complies with any applicable requirements under this Act;

and

- (b) periodically evaluate the operation and effectiveness of the automated decision-making process; and

1 Authority of Establishment

The Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee (ARIC) is established by the Shire of Irwin under sections 5.8 and 7.1A of the Local Government Act 1995 to provide independent oversight, advice and assurance to Council on matters relating to financial management, risk management, governance, legislative compliance and organisational improvement.

The ARIC operates in accordance with the provisions of the Local government Act 1995 (the Act), Local Government (Audit) Regulations 1996, the Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996 and Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996.

2 Purpose and Objectives of the Audit, Risk & Improvement Committee

The ARIC plays a key role in supporting Council to fulfil its legislative responsibilities by providing oversight of the Shire's financial reporting, audit processes, risk management framework and organisational performance. The ARIC acts as a conduit between Council, the Chief Executive Officer, the Office of the Auditor General and other auditors to promote transparency, accountability and sound governance practices across the organisation.

In accordance with the Local Government Act 1995, the ARIC is responsible for overseeing and making recommendations to Council on matters arising from external audits, compliance audits, CEO reviews of systems and procedures undertaken under Regulation 17 of the Local Government (Audit) Regulations 1996, and any other reviews required under Part 7 of the Act. The ARIC also monitors the implementation of audit recommendations, review findings and other actions required under the Act, including actions reported under section 7.12A.

The objectives of the ARIC are to:

- provide independent advice and assurance to Council on financial reporting, risk management, governance, legislative compliance and organisational improvement;
- oversee the effectiveness of the Shire's financial management, internal control and risk management systems;
- monitor compliance with applicable legislation, regulations, policies and recognised best-practice standards;
- review reports and recommendations arising from audits, compliance reviews and other assurance activities;
- monitor the implementation of agreed actions arising from audits, reviews and compliance activities;
- support the continuous improvement of the Shire's governance, systems, processes and organisational performance;
- facilitate effective communication between Council, the Chief Executive Officer, the Office of the Auditor General and other auditors; and
- strengthen public confidence through transparent oversight of the Shire's financial, governance and risk management practices.

Through these functions, The ARIC assists Council in exercising effective oversight of the Shire's affairs, resources and strategic objectives, while promoting accountability, transparency and continuous improvement across the organisation.

3 Delegated Powers of the Audit, Risk & Improvement Committee

The ARIC is an advisory committee of Council. It has no executive or management functions and cannot direct Shire staff. Council may delegate to the ARIC only powers and duties permitted by section 7.1C of the Act. Decisions of the ARIC are made by simple majority (section 7.1CA).

- c) Make recommendations to Council regarding matters within its remit.

Functions

- a) To receive and review reports on, and recommend to the council actions to be taken in relation to:
 - (i) audits under Part 7 of the Act; and
 - (ii) compliance audits; and
 - (iii) reviews under regulation 17;

Purpose and context

This Implementation Guide provides a roadmap for local governments to establish and operate Audit, Risk and Improvement Committees (ARICs) in compliance with the amended legislation and associated regulations.

The introduction of ARICs marks a significant reform, replacing existing audit committees with a new framework designed to enhance risk management and drive continuous improvement across local government operations.

Legislative framework

- Local Government Act 1995 (the Act).
- Local Government Amendment Act 2024 (the 2024 Amendment Act).
- Local Government (Audit) Regulations 1996 (the Audit Regulations).
- Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 (the Administration Regulations).
- Local Government Regulations Amendment Regulations (No. 4) 2025 (the ARIC Amendment Regulations).

Commencement requirements

ARICs must be established within 6 months of the commencement of section 87 of the 2024 Amendment Act, which introduces Part 7, Division 1A of the Act.

As the new provisions take effect on 1 January 2026, all local governments are required to have an ARIC in place by 30 June 2026.

Existing audit committees that already meet the legislative requirements will automatically transition to an ARIC under regulation 19 and 20 of the Audit Regulations (see regulation 15 of the ARIC Amendment Regulations).

Transitional arrangements

Overview

The transitional provisions are designed to ensure a smooth shift from existing audit committee structures and compliance audit processes to the new framework introduced by the ARIC Amendment Regulations. These arrangements apply from amendment day (1 January 2026).

Establishment of deemed ARICs

If a local government's existing audit committee already meets the new membership requirements (as set out in section 7.1A(2)(a) and (b) of the Act, amended by the 2024 Amendment Act), and the following apply:

- No members were appointed under section 5.10(1)(b) of the Act – that is, no appointments were made by virtue of the entitlement provisions for the Mayor or President (section 5.10(4)).
- The presiding member, the deputy of the presiding member, and any deputy presiding member (if one is appointed) are not council members of any local government.

Then, on 1 January 2026, the existing audit committee is deemed to become the ARIC without further action.

Any delegations to the former audit committee automatically continue as delegations to the deemed ARIC.

Local governments still retain the option to form a new ARIC within 6 months of 1 January 2026 if they choose to replace the deemed ARIC.

Practical implications

Local governments should review their existing audit committee structure and membership. If the current audit committee membership satisfies the criteria outlined above, no immediate changes are required.

While current delegations will continue to apply, local governments are encouraged to review whether these delegations remain appropriate and ensure that relevant policies or terms of reference for ARICs are updated.

Each local government may choose to retain its deemed ARIC or establish a new one. However, any audit committee that does not meet the required criteria will cease to exist after 1 January 2026 and must be formally constituted as an ARIC by 30 June 2026.

ARIC functions

The functions of ARICs are to:

- receive and review reports related to local government compliance audits required under the Act and regulations;
- make recommendations to council on actions to be taken in relation to those reports;
- receive and review reports on the effectiveness of the local government's systems and procedures in relation to financial management, legislative compliance and risk management;
- make recommendations to council on improvements to those systems and procedures;
- receive and review reports on any actions the local government is required to take under the Act, or has decided to take in relation to a compliance audit report or report into the effectiveness of the local government's systems and procedures; and
- perform any function conferred on the ARIC under the Regulations or another written law.

Membership of ARICs

Under section 7.1A of the Act, each ARIC must have a minimum of three members. These include an independent presiding member, an independent deputy of the presiding member, and at least one other member as per the diagram below:

Council members are permitted to sit on an ARIC for their own local government or for another local government. However, they cannot hold the positions of presiding member, deputy of the presiding member, or deputy presiding member. This ensures that leadership roles within the ARIC remain independent.

Employees of a local government are not allowed to serve on that same local government's ARIC. Employees may, however, be appointed as a member of an ARIC for a different local government, provided they meet all other eligibility requirements.

When appointing deputies, it is important to note that the same individual cannot serve as both the independent deputy presiding member and the deputy of the presiding member.

Local governments that would like assistance in identifying an independent person to serve as presiding member or deputy of the presiding member may contact LGIRS at goodgovernance@lgirs.wa.gov.au.

Shared ARICs

Local governments have the option to establish a shared audit, risk and improvement committee (shared ARIC) under section 7.1CB(6) and (7) of the Act.

It may be beneficial for a local government to establish a shared ARIC in circumstances where:

- a local government is in a regional or remote area and may face challenges with attracting suitably qualified and experienced independent members;
- a local government is in close geographical proximity to another local government;

- a local government faces similar issues in their district with another local government;
- a shared ARIC provides increased access to independent members by enabling meetings to be scheduled on the same day;
- a local government may have more success with recruitment of independent members by pooling resources with another local government.

The requirements for shared ARICs are detailed in regulations 4 and 5 of the Audit Regulations, as amended by regulation 8 of the ARIC Amendment Regulations.

When forming a shared ARIC, participating local governments must enter into a formal agreement. This agreement should clearly set out how decisions will be made and include procedures for the removal of members. It must also address how powers and duties under relevant provisions of the legislation will be exercised collectively.

Employees of any participating local government are not permitted to serve as members of the shared ARIC. Furthermore, the presiding member, deputy for the presiding member, and deputy presiding members are to be independent and therefore cannot be council members of any participating local government. These appointments require an absolute majority decision from each local government involved.

Local governments may also share an independent member with another local government without establishing a shared committee.

All members of the shared ARIC are bound by a Code of Conduct. For council members, their own local government's adopted Code of Conduct applies. For non-council members, the shared ARIC agreement must specify which Code of Conduct will apply (adopted under section 5.104 by one of the participating local governments).

Electronic attendance

Under regulation 14C of the Administration Regulations, electronic attendance at ARIC meetings is permitted but capped at no more than 50 per cent of meetings within any 12-month period.

Payment for independent members

Independent members are entitled to sitting fees as determined by the Salaries and Allowances Tribunal and in accordance with section 5.100 of the Act. The current maximum is set at $1,215 per meeting.¹

In addition to sitting fees, independent members may claim reimbursement for actual travel expenses incurred in attending ARIC meetings.

Compliance audit workflow

The below outlines the process for conducting, reviewing and submitting annual compliance audits in accordance with the Audit Regulations.

1. Annual audit

The CEO ensures a compliance audit of the local government's statutory compliance for the period 1 January to 31 December each year.

2. Prepare and submit return

The CEO prepares a compliance audit return in the Inspector-approved form and provides it to the ARIC.

3. ARIC review and report

The ARIC reviews the compliance audit return and reports the results and any recommendations to Council.

4. Council consideration and adoption

Council considers the return and ARIC's review (including any recommendations), determines any required actions, and adopts the return (with or without amendments).

5. Submission to Inspector

After adoption, the local government must submit to the Inspector by 31 March following the audit year (or 30 September 2026 for 2025 returns):

- the compliance audit return (signed by the Mayor/President and CEO);
- ARIC recommendations;
- relevant council meeting minutes;
- and any explanatory or qualifying information.

Refer to regulations 14 and 15 of the Audit Regulations (see regulation 14 of the ARIC Amendment Regulations).

CEO review and Council obligations

Under regulation 17 of the Audit Regulations the CEO must review financial management, legislative compliance and risk systems at least once every four years and report results to the ARIC.

Under the Audit Regulations, the CEO is responsible for ensuring that the local government's governance systems remain effective and appropriate. Specifically, the CEO must periodically review the systems and procedures that support:

- financial management;
- legislative compliance; and
- risk management.

These reviews can be conducted at any time, but each area must be examined at least once in every four financial years. After completing a review, the CEO is required to report the results to the ARIC.

The ARIC plays a critical role in oversight and considers the CEO's review findings alongside other audit and compliance reports and provides recommendations to Council on any improvements or corrective actions that may be necessary (see regulation 16 of the Audit Regulations).

Council, in turn, must examine ARIC's reports and determine what actions are required to address identified issues.
